

Stratford Vt. Sept. 4, 1888

My dear Sir:

I see by your Catalogue of 1863-4 that you have more than doubled your corps of teachers. Of course the services of nearly all you then had would be absolutely required for a proper Ag. College. I should rather like to know the amount paid them and now for each one of the professors, though I may not see the facts.

Though you ought to have one or two more professorships, it seems to me an endowment of some you now have
