

Haverhill, Mass.

Apr. 26, 1888.

My dear Lottie:—

You are not forgotten, if my pen has been silent so long & I trust I am not.

How many changes have taken place since we parted, and how widely we are scattered, and dear Mrs. Campbell, who did every thing in her power to make us enjoy school. God has seen fit to take from her dear friends here on earth to that Blest Home where there will be no more sorrow, I
