

Worcester ~~Worcester~~ January the 9th 1790.

I am brother and sister being after leisure months Schepoly desire them to go to relieve your anxiety I came to Worcester last night Sun its work to a place where the woman is sick I have nine struggles week you must excuse my not writing before I had got other work and could when I made my mind to leave well the old lady where work was not willing to give me up I had to stay there week longer I received your letter and was very sorry to hear that you had been sick at night and were to your uncle David Thamman is sick he has been sick about three weeks I believe they call it the jaundice Sun going to commence to morrow my health is very good when I was in Duncutt the woman was sick and I had not saving time to write Cross is here has been sick and having fits but is better he says he has felt better for a week than he has before since he heard of his Mothers death Mrs Pinkings health is very poor give my love to Mary and tell her to write you must kiss me twenty times for me you must be careful and not get sick again you must write when you receive this I have many things to write ^{but} can not more for
