Geo O Marsh Esqr

Dear Sir

Your last of Nov^r 19th came last night, once as Father is now in Boston, I will answer for him.

The books I will send tomorrow as you directed

Matters go on in this place after the old way, every body is scratching about to get a living and most of them succeed in keeping soul and body together.

The religious zeal of the two churches continues unabated. Our side have a new minister every Sunday, as usual. John Perry preached last week. Mr Partridge has been discharged of last and we live in hope of better things in the music line.

Mr Willard's wife have been operating
