

Stratford, Vt. Sept. 29. 1873

Prot. Buckham,

Burlington, Vt.

My dear Sir: I note what you say and wish some concerted effort could be made to give the College an additional number of scholarships. The State should do it but I fear will not. Your show ^{of numbers} this year is very good.

The point suggested as to argument hereafter for more Govt. aid is a good one and will be well but in one of my earlier Speeches you will find it considered at great length. Recently I have thought other points should be pressed and