And then after all that work on one new ship, I'll tell you what happened, but you can look for yourself.

There was a Viking leader. He was preparing to raid. The boats were ready. They got in and rode away. A couple of weeks passed. They started to raid. They were raiding a monastery. Irish horsemen were attacking the Vikings who were left to guard the boats. One of them was badly wounded. They did their best but he died. 3 other men died. They had so much to do and so little time, they had to load the boats. All the men were kept busy. Irish men would catch up with them. Most of them got away. The End.

There once was a space ship. It was badly damaged in battles. It was coming into a filling station when they were attacked! The ship was shattered to pieces but most of them escaped in small ships and were drawn into a black hole and it sealed up. The people were terrified. A meeting was held among the leaders of the fleet. 6,000 people were trapped. On the 30th, great feasting was held. They found a planet. They called in Cryon. There they made new ships; headed toward a blue planet with other planets in its solar system. They still had a problem: wires and transmissions. Where would they get those? They finally found a ship wreck. They found a magic unicorn on the ship and lots of transmissions. The unicorn went to one of the leader's sons. Transmissions were installed and they took off for a jungly planet. They took a lot of stuff with them. They got off that planet just in time because it blew up. In the game of life and death, the bravest men would climb on a shuttlecraft and bail out over the enemy city, but they would get shot down. The only place they wouldn't be suspected was the laser dump, but that was radioactive, so they would have to wear another 10 pounds. So they would weigh 9 times the weight of their pistols. One night it was time. They jumped into the seats. Srrrrp. Their ship was shot down. They bumped into some enemies. Zap, srrrrp. They ran through. Who got it? Andersen, in the leg; Ethan, in the arm. Too bad. They might not make it back to the Pegasis! There might be some hope that we could ambush some doctors. It was risky but they would have to do it. They got back alive. They saw a star. Is it? Yes, it could be! Yes, it is, it's Earth. The end.

Unicorns are animals which are mentioned in many stories. It lives in forests and is owned by many storybook kings, such as the unicorn Jewel in The Last Battle. The Unicorn has magic charms. A lot of people are interested in it because it is unusual. Also I would think if we had Unicorns instead of cows we would say, "Wow I wish I had a cow."

The unicorn is a symbol of purity. What is also intriguing is, it has a single horn which makes it stand out from other animals. Another thing is it lived about 400-500 years ago.

The Unicorn has many counterparts in the imaginary world like Fauns, Pegasus, Nyads, Dryads, Cyclops, Dragons and Kobolds.

Fauns are half man and half Deer with hooves. They are shy but playful creatures.

Kobolds live in mines. Sometimes they are helpful and sing a lot and clean houses. But they do also trip people, get under tables and grab legs!

Pegasus is a winged horse. Pegasus is a word that comes from Greek mythology. It means flying horse.

Sphinx was a great Egyptian god with the body of a lion and the head of a man. It is so respected that it was put as an eternal guard of the tombs of the pharaohs.

The unicorn is far greater than any of these other creatures. The animal has been said to fly and to be ridden into battle by many kings, I think the unicorn is a graceful and magnificent animal and the most amazing of all the mythical animals. But what intrigues me the most is why is it so interesting to so many people. They say what good will it do me to believe all this nonsense. But you would get something out of it a broader imagination. THE END. -?!()+

On Tantabe you could see all seven moons. On the fourth moon, an operation that would chart the course of the universe was going on. (The Zylon raiders.) The plan was a star cruiser that was made out of the following: Hiotiefin Cordimcilic (421,000 tons; 1,000,000,000 tons). It also had forty-four devastashon rays.

I'm Leuthirin, a Milon captain. I and two of my friends were making last checks on the ship. The hallway boomed and echoed. Then I spotted someone who was going to sabotage the ship. I drew my gun and shot at him. He dodged it and ducked behind a locker and shot at me. His bolt hit a wall sending a shower of sparks all over. I called the guards. I saed, "Turn on the petrified frass." I got out of the ship and ran down to the grass field and saw the thing that evaded me on board the ship. It had fourteen limbs, half of them were stuck down by protruding spikes. His head was severed from his body, his backbone was exposed by gleaming spikes. The security men took the body of it. It was disgusting. (Body) Darcon the wizard of crystal magic lived in the tietime mountains. My duty route went over his land. I got stuck with it.

SPACE ODYSSEY

As I deprest the light speed throttle I herd the powerfull engine kick in and the stars became merly blurs of light. I turned to my copilot and grined. He did the same I liesurely presst the autopilot button spun around in my seat and went in to the hold. A hour and a half later I turned the ship toward my far away home planet. Thoughts of my family and friends drifted through my mind. I turned on my radio and tuned into my home beakon . I heard static. I landed and went walked to the village. I was met by smoke and fire. I buried my face in the face in the sand and cried. When I regained my senses I got up and went back to the ship, when I saw something burning & I ran over and saw the sizzling body of my copilot. My atenshon was devorted from my vigel on the underbrush to a pair of charred hands locking around my throat. I spun to face my unseen oponent, I was horrified as I saw the fish-eyed expershonless face. I threww off the hands and jumped on to the hull of my ship I got to the turret and turned the steering whell like handel 3 times. Then a familiar clack and the porthole slid open. I hurriedly stepped inside, the door slammed shut behind me as I ran to the cockpit. This door, too, slid open to the right like the other one but then I remembered no more.

I think that we should throw Watt and Reagan out of the world with several other world leaders. I think anyone who starts a war should be put in prison! I also think that when anyone sees litter they should pick it up and throw it in the nearest trash can and we should renovate old buildings and not build any new onces, cars should be abolished from the face of the earth except for ambulances, so should cigarettes. THE END

I LOVE DOING THIS

I flaped my arms over the sea, I diped my rod into the sea, I got 10,000 fish on my line, then I put all of them back because they were to small, then I went to the end of infinity and beat-up Bruce Lee and sat on the sun because I was tierd. I went to sleep. When I woke I found the sun had went out, so I went to the devil and said "I'm going to wop the tar out of you if you don't give me fire for the sun!" He said "Haaa, Haaa, Haaa. I've got a lot of tar to wop" so I flew into a rage and wopped the tar out of him, and he gave me the fire wich I put on my nose so I could not lose it. I put new improved Zud, oopps, wrong thing, I put the fire in the sun and kissed my mom so hard her head it fell off. THE END

The first thing I remember is my house at cristmas. We had wood shingill siding with yello trim.

I was scooting down the hall on my fire truck, it was $3\frac{1}{2}$ ' long, red, and it had a seat whar the cab should be. But my favort part was the 2 wooden ladder's on the side.

I also remember the meat market it had a polish sounding name like Yarmoscys or Vinos-that's kind of Italian.

I also remember at my grandparents house on a iland on the south coste, you had to climb like 4 flights of stares in side the house. My grandpa had a alligator skin. It was surrounded by a pine forest, off the padeo you could see the ocean. One day I went fishing with my grandpa and we saw a whole lode of old army bunkers, another day we went to a old rotten dock, there were old rotting boats to go with it. THE END

My days are not particularly interesting. The edition of french to my weekly school schedual is intresting at Worst I find it almost capaveting. The man who teaches us is very nice. Last week he gave us new names, mines _____. On the other hand I made a block building that many peopel remarked on, they said things like whats that going to be? I put up with it as long as possibel then I resorted to stupid remarks such as "yull see" and the dreded "dont you know?"

My school work is not to much. I keep up bairly. This is one of those things (U.F.) gets plesure out of--telling us at the last minute namely this Journal and many other things like it. (U.F.) so if you read this take note.

This week we only have 2 and $\frac{1}{2}$ days of school we will only have 1 day of photography unless ____ comes in in the morning wich I do not think he will do it.* Holidays don't leave much of a impression on me these days. Take my own birthday for instance, and halloween or other supposedly grate events do not leave very much happyness or excitement in my life for the past 2 months I have been dead bored! I have been reading a lot of books recently. It dosent make any change. The onslaught of adolescence in my life and all this peer pressure I'm really surprised that I can remain sain.
